Wallace Lyon Probably Dying as Result of a Bullet Wound.

(Special to The Herald-Republican.) Ogden, Dec. 15 .- Shot through the head in a drunken brawl with a negro, Wallace Lyon, 23 years old, is dying tonight at his home, 457 Twenty-fourth street, while his assailant, Theodore Kennedy, has eluded the police and is roaming about the country in the porter's uniform of the Weber club, where he was em-of the Weber club, where he was employed up to yesterday.

The shooting occurred in a Japanese restaurant at 257 Twenty-fourth street, and was witnessed by William Marriott, a companion of Lyon. Lyon and the negro, who have had trouble before, were drunk, it is said, and indications are that the negro shot in self defense. However, as soon as the shooting became known there were threats of lynching, but the negro could not be found.

Lyon and Marriott, both of whom had been drinking, entered the "noodle joint" been drinking, entered the "noodle joint at 7 o'clock this evening and shortly af erward the negro entered and took a seat opposite them. The negro made some remark, and Lyon resented it, the result being that a fight ensued. Lyon knocked the negro to the floor and was upon him with his hand at Kennedy's throat, when the negro draw a revolver and that Lyon the negro drew a revolver and shot Lyon through the head.

The bullet entered the left jaw and was later found protruding through the flesh beneath the right ear. Lyon relaxed his grip, staggered to his feet and out of the place. The negro disappeared through and fell unconscious, after uttering a few words that told of the shooting. Marriott disappeared entirely.

Later Lyon was taken to his home and was attended by Dr. E. 1. Rich and Dr. C. F. Osgood. Lyon regained consciousness, but remembered little of the shooting and at a late hour tonight the physicians said that he had a fighting chance

SEARCHING FOR ASPHALT SUPPOSED PAUPER Ogden Concern Believes a Lake of Valuable Liquid Lies Underground. (Special to The Herald-Republican.)

Ogden, Dec. 15 .- Work on the development of the valuable liquid asphalt deposits on the shores of Great Salt Lake discovered several years ago and for the working of which the Ogden Lakeshore Oil & Asphaltum company was recently organized in this city, has already begun. A standard drilling machine, capable of drilling 3,000 feet below the surface, has been purchased and a well is now being driven. Everything points to an inexhaustible deposit of the valuable asphaltum. The find is located about 18 miles from the western end of the Lucin cutoff at what is known as Rosell flats.

Ira Haskin and W. O. Wheat, two of the directors of the new company, say they have found absolute proof that at a depth of 2,500 feet a flow of asphalt will be encountered large enough to tax to the limit any plant the company can build for the handling of the product. The wells are being drilled close to the shore and the product will be handled in barges, which have already been transported to the scene of activity. The asphalt contains elements for the manufaçtic ture of by-products of the order of paint, timber preservatives lubricating ou and rganized in this city, has already begun.

Harriman Lines Making Great Effort to Handle Trains.

(Special to The Herald-Republican.) Ogden, Dec. 15 .- Every reserve locomodivision of the Southern Pacific railroad is now in commission between Ogden and is now in commission between Ogden and Sparks, Nev. in an attempt to handle without further delay the great midwinter transcontinental freight shipments. The opening of the orange shipping season from California, together with the heavy traffic in freight from the east, coming on top of the difficulties encountered because of the stormy weather, is taxing the Union Pacific and Southern Pacific roads to the limit.

Tonnage on all freight trains handled over the mountain regions at present has been cut down nearly one-half.

WATTS ESTATE CONTEST.

tricts to the north and west of Ogden will be placed under state quarantine. School has already been closed at Harrisville and Farr West by order of County Commissioner O. B. Madson. The state board of health at Salt Lake has been informed of the state of affairs, and it is expected radical action will be taken. Ogden is the center of all the afflicted districts, and unless something is done at once to prevent the continual stream of traffic from Harrisville to Ogden an outbreak in the city is likely.

It is supposed that the epidemic began with a dance at Plain City last week, when two boys with the smallpox already hroken out on their bodies were in attendance, causing a widespread exposure.

Widower Asks Court to Set Aside

Homestead Involved.

(Special to The Herald-Republican.)
Ogden. Dec. 15.—The probate contest case over the estate of Elenor A. Watts, deceased, came before the district court today. William Watts, the widower, is asking the court to set aside the homestead involved as his exclusive legacy. Other heirs named in the will are objecting. The entire estate amounts to 38,000, of which the homestead represents the major portion.

The court took the case under advisement, and will render a decision tomorrow.
